The Roman Catechism

Part II: The Sacraments — The Sacrament of Penance (cont'd.)

Conditions Required for Contrition

From what has been said we may gather the chief requisites of true contrition. In these the faithful are to be accurately instructed, that each may know the means of attaining, and may have a fixed standard by which to determine, how far he may be removed from the perfection of this virtue.

Detestation Of Sin

We must, then, in the first place, detest and deplore all our sins. If our sorrow and detestation extend only to some sins, our repentance is not salutary, but feigned and false. Whosoever shall keep the whole law, says St. James, but offend in one point, is become guilty of all.

Intention Of Confession And Satisfaction

In the next place, our contrition must be accompanied with a desire of confessing and satisfying for our sins. Concerning these dispositions we shall treat in their proper place.

Purpose Of Amendment

Thirdly, the penitent must form a fixed and firm purpose of amendment of life. This the Prophet clearly teaches in the following words: If the wicked do penance for all his sins which he hath committed, and keep all my commandments, and do judgment, and justice, living he shall live, and shall not die: I will not remember all his iniquities which he hath done. And a little after: When the wicked turneth himself away from his wickedness which he hath wrought, and doth judgment and justice, he shall save his soul alive. Still further on he adds: Be converted and do penance for all your iniquities, and iniquity shall not be your ruin. Cast away from you all your transgressions, by which you have transgressed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. To the woman taken in adultery Christ our Lord commanded the same thing: Go thy way, and sin no more; and also to the lame man whom He cured at the pool of Bethesda: Behold, thou art made whole, sin no more.

Announcements

Today we will have a special second collection to support the Mater Dei sisters, in gratitude for their work and to help them offset the expenses they incurred in traveling to Ohio and visiting our parish. Please make checks payable to St. Therese Church. We will first collect all funds and then forward one lump sum to the Mater Dei convent.

We have posted some fun pictures of our recent Summer Catechism and Bowling Fundraiser events on our web site. Check them out at StThereseCMRI.org and click on "Photos" in the menu bar.

Our little bookstore and lending library aim to encourage the reading of pious and edifying books. It is important to read only approved Catholic literature and to avoid anything that is contrary to Faith or morals. In 1908, Pope St. Pius X wrote: "There are many striking examples of the salutary effects of the reading of pious books. Outstanding is the case of [Saint] Augustine whose great services to the Church had their origin in such reading... In our own day, alas! it is the contrary that happens all too frequently ...Anyone who admits this poison [of bad books] into his soul will rarely escape the disastrous consequences of the evil thus introduced" (Apostolic Exhortation Haerent Animo, 3). If you have any questions about any of the books, please ask Father or one of the board members.

We wish all our parishioners and visitors a happy Independence Day this Wednesday, July 4.
