The Roman Catechism

Part II: The Sacraments — The Sacrament of Extreme Unction (cont'd.)

Extreme Unction Is But One Sacrament

Pastors, therefore, should teach that Extreme Unction is a true Sacrament, and that, although administered with many anointings, each given with a peculiar prayer, and under a peculiar form, it constitutes not many, but one Sacrament. It is one, however, not in the sense that it is composed of inseparable parts, but because each of the parts contributes to its perfection, as is the case with every object composed of many parts. As a house which consists of a great variety of parts derives its perfection from unity of plan, so is this Sacrament, although composed of many and different things and words, but one sign, and it effects only that one thing of which it is the sign.

Essential Parts of Extreme Unction

Pastors should also teach what are the component parts of this Sacrament, its matter and form. These St. James does not omit, and each is replete with its own peculiar mysteries.

The Matter Of Extreme Unction

Its element, then, or matter, as defined by Councils, particularly by the Council of Trent, consists of oil consecrated by the Bishop. Not any kind of oil extracted from fatty or greasy substances, but olive oil alone can be the matter of this Sacrament.

Thus its matter is most significant of what is inwardly effected in the soul by the Sacrament. Oil is very efficacious in soothing bodily pain, and the power of this Sacrament lessens the pain and anguish of the soul. Oil also restores health, brings joy, feeds light, and is very efficacious in refreshing bodily fatigue. All these effects signify what the divine power accomplishes in the sick man through the administration of this Sacrament. So much will suffice in explanation of the matter.

Indulgences for the Holy Souls in the Month of November

This month is dedicated to the Souls in Purgatory. To the faithful who in the month of November assist the Souls in Purgatory with prayers or other pious exercises the following indulgences are granted: an indulgence of three years once each day of the month; a plenary indulgence of three years under the usual conditions if they perform the same work every day for the entire month.

To those of the faithful who in the month of November devoutly assist at some public pious exercise in suffrage for the Souls in Purgatory the following indulgences are granted: an indulgence of seven years once each day of the month; a plenary indulgence if they assist as noted for at least fifteen days in the month and if they also go to Confession, receive Communion, and pray for the intention of the Pope [Church].

To the faithful who during the Octave of the Commemoration of All Souls visit a cemetery with piety and devotion and say either an oral or mental prayer for the departed a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory is granted under the usual conditions; this indulgence may be gained once each day during the octave. On any other day in the year an indulgence of seven years may be gained once a day for the same visit and prayer; the indulgence is applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory.

"Love not the world, nor the things which are in the world. If any man love the world, the charity of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, is the concupiscence of the flesh, and the concupiscence of the eyes, and the pride of life, which is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the concupiscence thereof: but he that doth the will of God abideth for ever" (1 Jn 2:15-17).
