

Sacraments & Sacramentals

Confessions

Confessions are typically heard before all Masses: at least 45 minutes before Sunday Masses and 30 minutes before weekday Masses.

Baptism

Baptisms are by appointment. At least one parent as well as the sponsor(s) must be practicing traditional Roman Catholics. For further information please phone Father for arrangements.

Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation is administered every year by Bp. Mark Pivarunas, CMRI.

Holy Matrimony

If you are contemplating marriage, please make an appointment to speak with Father before setting a date.

Blessing of Expectant Mothers

2nd Sunday of the month immediately following Holy Mass.

Funerals

Simply call Father before calling the funeral director. Father will help you make all the necessary arrangements.

Last Rites and Sick Calls

Father serves a wide area and must often travel far to administer these sacraments. Please do not put off making arrangements until the last moment. Let us know if a church member is sick, hospitalized or in danger of death.

Mass Intentions

Envelopes for Mass requests are available in the vestibule. Please request particular dates for Masses at least one month in advance.

First Holy Communion

First Holy Communions will typically be made once a year.

Blessing of Religious Articles

1st and 3rd Sundays of the month immediately following Holy Mass.

Part II: The Sacraments — The Sacrament of Penance (cont'd.)

One Can Satisfy For Another

In this the supreme mercy and goodness of God deserve our grateful acknowledgment and praise, that He has granted to our frailty the privilege that one may satisfy for another. This, however, is a privilege which is confined to the satisfactory part of Penance alone. As regards contrition and confession, no one is able to be contrite for another; but those who are in the state of grace may pay for others what is due to God, and thus we may be said in some measure to bear each other's burdens.

This is a doctrine on which the faithful cannot for a moment entertain a doubt, since we profess in the Apostle's Creed our belief in the Communion of Saints. For since we are all reborn to Christ in the same cleansing waters of Baptism and are partakers of the same Sacraments, and, above all, are nourished with the same body and blood of Christ our Lord, as our food and drink, we are all, it is manifest, members of the same body. As then the foot does not perform its functions solely for itself, but also for the sake of the eyes, and as the eyes see not only for their own sake, but for the general good of all the members, so also works of satisfaction must be considered common to us all.

This, however, is not true in reference to all the advantages to be derived from satisfaction. For works of satisfaction are also medicinal, and are so many remedies prescribed to the penitent to heal the depraved affections of the soul. It is clear that those who do not satisfy for themselves can have no share in this fruit of penance.

These three parts of Penance, contrition, confession and satisfaction, should be fully and clearly explained.

Prayer to St. Joseph in the Month of October

This Prayer to the Patron of the Universal Church was prescribed by Pope Leo XIII to be recited after the daily Rosary during October

To thee, O blessed Joseph, we have recourse in our affliction, and having implored the help of thy thrice holy Spouse, we now, with hearts filled with confidence, earnestly beg thee also to take us under thy protection. By that charity wherewith thou wert united to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God, and by that fatherly love with which thou didst cherish the Child Jesus, we beseech thee and we humbly pray that thou wilt look down with gracious eye upon that inheritance which Jesus Christ purchased by His blood, and wilt succor us in our need by thy power and strength.

Defend, O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, the chosen off-spring of Jesus Christ. Keep from us, O most loving Father, all blight of error and corruption. Aid us from on high, most valiant defender, in this conflict with the powers of darkness. And even as of old thou didst rescue the Child Jesus from the peril of His life, so now defend God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity. Shield us ever under thy patronage, that, following thine example and strengthened by thy help, we may live a holy life, die a happy death, and attain to everlasting bliss in Heaven. Amen.

Indulgences attached (see Raccolta, n. 476): 3 years; 7 years during the month of October when said after the recitation of the Rosary and on any Wednesday throughout the year; plenary indulgence once a month, under the usual conditions, for the daily recitation of this prayer.

Announcements

This week is our monthly Holy Hour with Rosary and devotions to Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

This Saturday, Oct. 20, we are looking for a few men to help with cleaning up some things around the church after Mass. Please see John Wright for details and to let him know you are interested. The more people show up, the faster it will go for everyone. Catch Mass in the morning, too!

New issues of The Reign of Mary are available in the bookstore for a donation of any amount. It is one of the few publications a Catholic can safely read in our day.

During the month of October, Pope Leo XIII prescribed that a special prayer to St. Joseph be recited at the conclusion of the Holy Rosary. The indulgenced prayer can be found to the left.

Looking ahead: Holy Mass will be offered on All Saints' Day, a Holyday of Obligation, on Thursday, Nov. 1, at 6:00 pm. All Souls' Day, Nov. 2, will have the traditional three consecutive Masses at 8:30 am, around 9:15 am, and around 10:00 am.

Beginning in November, Fr. Trough will once again be with us for First Fridays and First Saturdays, so anyone who would like to receive Holy Communion on those days will be able to do so.

Fr. Trough is currently accepting Mass stipends. Immediate openings are available.
