

Sacraments & Sacramentals

Confessions

Confessions are typically heard before all Masses: at least 45 minutes before Sunday Masses and 30 minutes before weekday Masses.

Baptism

Baptisms are by appointment. At least one parent as well as the sponsor(s) must be practicing traditional Roman Catholics. For further information please phone Father for arrangements.

Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation is administered every year by Bp. Mark Pivarunas, CMRI.

Holy Matrimony

If you are contemplating marriage, please make an appointment to speak with Father before setting a date.

Blessing of Expectant Mothers

2nd Sunday of the month immediately following Holy Mass.

Funerals

Simply call Father before calling the funeral director. Father will help you make all the necessary arrangements.

Last Rites and Sick Calls

Father serves a wide area and must often travel far to administer these sacraments. Please do not put off making arrangements until the last moment. Let us know if a church member is sick, hospitalized or in danger of death.

Mass Intentions

Envelopes for Mass requests are available in the vestibule. Please request particular dates for Masses at least one month in advance.

First Holy Communion

First Holy Communions will typically be made once a year.

Blessing of Religious Articles

1st and 3rd Sundays of the month immediately following Holy Mass.

Part II: The Sacraments — The Sacrament of Holy Orders

Importance Of Instruction On This Sacrament

If one attentively considers the nature and essence of the other Sacraments, it will readily be seen that they all depend on the Sacrament of Orders to such an extent that without it some of them could not be constituted or administered at all; while others would be deprived of all their solemn ceremonies, as well as of a certain part of the religious respect and exterior honor accorded to them. Wherefore in continuing the exposition of the doctrine of the Sacraments, it will be necessary for pastors to bear in mind that it is their duty to explain with even special care the Sacrament of Orders.

This explanation will be highly advantageous. First of all to the pastor himself, then to all those who have entered on the ecclesiastical state, and finally to the people in general. To the pastor himself, because by treating of this subject he himself will be more deeply moved to stir up within him the grace he has received in this Sacrament; to those who have been called to the portion of the Lord, partly by animating them with a like spirit of piety, and partly by affording them an opportunity of acquiring a knowledge of such things as will enable them all the more easily to advance to higher orders; to the rest of the faithful, first, because it enables them to understand the respect due to the Church's ministers, and secondly, because as it often happens that many may be present who have destined their children, while yet young, for the Church's service, or who desire to embrace that life themselves, it is far from right that such persons should be unacquainted with the principal truths regarding this particular state.

40 Maxims that have made Saints

(Imprimatur: Bp. James A. McNulty, 1958)

21. Offer an extra Holy Communion for those who are dear to you.
22. Somebody possesses the happy faculty of irritating you. Keep cool.
23. Bear with the failings of others if you wish Jesus to be patient with you.
24. Is there opportunity for some slight revenge or a sharp word? Show yourself polite and obliging.
25. You would like to eat a fruit or taste a dainty. Refrain: Jesus asks this of you.

Announcements

The Octave of Christmas continues until Jan. 1, which is a Holyday of Obligation that celebrates three specific feasts: the Circumcision of Christ on the eighth day after His birth, the Octave Day of Christmas, and the Blessed Virgin Mary as the Mother of God. Mass will be offered at our parish at 10:00 am. Happy New Year!

The First Friday and Saturday of the month of January fall into this week. Friday's Mass will be followed by our customary Eucharistic Holy Hour with Benediction, Rosary, and Devotions to our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Our adult-level doctrine class is scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 19, from 7:00 pm until 8:30 pm. Dessert will be provided (pizza & pop have been discontinued). Location will be announced.

We are excited to welcome the newly-ordained Fr. Jeremy Saunders for Mass on Sunday, Jan. 13.

Liturgical wall calendars for 2019 are available in the bookstore. They are free to all parishioners, but please limit to one per household for now to ensure each family gets one. Thank you.
